

Think We'll Need a Socialist for the Senate?

John Parker U.S. Senate Candidate, Peace & Freedom Party

All voters of any party, including nonpartisan voters can vote for John Parker on June 7th. Of the 35 candidates running for U.S. Senate, John Parker's campaign seeks to divert the endless war budget for human needs: healthcare, housing, education and job creation. He envisions a society not controlled by big banks and giant corporations but by workers, voters and communities. Like the Sanders campaign, Parker has no corporate donors: his supporters are working class individuals and families. Parker's early endorsers include, former attorney General Ramsey Clark, peace activist and author Cindy Sheehan and historian-author Gerald Horne.

John Parker is a long-time socialist and Workers World Party member who:

- Was 1st to spearhead & write ballot measure for an immediate $15 minimum wage in L.A.
- Has traveled and written extensively as an anti-imperialist, anti-war activist
- Is a recognized leader fighting against racism, police terror & immigrants rights.

Parker would create legislation to:

- Stop the War on Black Lives and All People of African Descent; End War on Immigrants, Muslims and All People of Color.
- Put People Before Profits – End Exploitation and the Robbery of Working and Poor People
- De-fund the Military and use the Money for Free Healthcare, Housing, Childcare, Job Creation and Education
- Cancel the Debt – Make the Banks Pay!
- End Prison Industrial Complex – No Mass Incarceration and Private Prisons for Profit – Jail Killer Cops Not Black/Brown Youth.
